

Termination of Temporary Authority to Practice

For December 2019 and 2020 graduates, temporary authority to practice ends on the occurrence of any of the following:

- On the date the applicant withdraws the applicant's application to sit for the July/September 2020 Ohio Bar Examination;
- On the first date of the Bar Examination, if an applicant fails to sit for the next available Bar Examination in Ohio;
- On the Monday after distribution of the results of the first Bar Examination offered in Ohio if the applicant is not successful on that examination.
 - If the applicant is successful on that examination, it shall extend until the applicant is admitted to practice of law in Ohio so long as the applicant is admitted within 12 months of that Bar Examination.
 - If the applicant is not admitted within 12 months following that Bar Examination, the temporary authority to practice law shall automatically terminate.
- Upon the Board of Commissioners on Character and Fitness revoking final approval of the applicant's character, fitness, and moral qualifications to practice;
- On the date the applicant is no longer practicing under the supervision of an active Ohio attorney in good standing.
